The firemen saw that the young nurse, who had come to the Tag home only a few hours before, had lifted Mrs. Snevely from the bed and had made a brave effort to rescue her.

tion might occur. So far, however, the investigation of the committee's accountants shows only two bonuses and an increase in salary for Mr. Shonts and a scanty pourboire of $50,000 for the company's counsel, Richard Reid Rogers.

Secretary H. M. Fisher of the Interborous reluctastity testified to the manner in which that company remunerated special services shortly after the dual system contracts had been put through. Under the questioning of Bainbridge Colby, counsel for the questioning of Bainbridge Colby, counsel for the cummittee, Mr. Fisher identified and explained the entries in his minute book.

To Seek River of Doubt.

The Count's story is particularly ineresting at this time, for within a few days he departs, he says, to seek Col. Roosevelt's River of Doubt. In the past the Count has done marvellous things, Regers of New York, Miss M. L. and L. Such as promoting a corner in skeleC. Murphy of Poland Park, Md., and Miss Edith Miller of Philadelphia.

The New Derby of Beaver Fur at $5

If there is another $5 derby in the country that can hold a candle to this, we should like to see it. It is of beaver fur. which ranks next to seal. Each separate hair interlocks with the other so closely as to make the fur feel almost a woven fabric. The hat is light, durable, fashionable. We shall show it first on Saturday. In five proportions, and all sizes; exclusive, $5. (Burlington Arcade Floor, New Bldg.)
